KANGAR: PKR adviser Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim failed to name the party's candidates for Perlis on Sunday night as seat negotiations with its ally PAS and DAP remained at a deadlock.

Anwar was to announce the candidates during a ceramah at Kampung Seberang Ramai here.

He left hurriedly after a short speech without making any announcements leaving party members and journalists in shock.

State PKR chairman Mohd Faisal Abd Rahman said unsolved issues remained for the Kangar parliamentary and Indera Kayangan state seats.

"Traditionally, PKR contests in the two seats but PAS is now eyeing Kangar and DAP is interested with Indera Kayangan," he said on Sunday.
