KUALA LUMPUR, May 27 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today gave a guarantee that the government can make a change in the country by understanding the wants of the youths.

Stressing that nothing was constant, the prime minister said the government had to be bold and make changes that met the people's expectations.

"Whether it is quick or not, change will happen. I can guarantee that the government can make a change in the country, and this means understanding the wants of our youths.

"We have to change our attitude, strategy, programmes and approach as we can no longer assume what we are practising now as the best solution for the future.

"We must be open-minded and be pragmatic, not dogmatic," he said in a Facebook post today.
