PETALING JAYA, May 30 — PKR vice-president Nurul Izzah Anwar, who arrived at Kota Kinabalu this evening for the Kaamatan celebration, has been denied entry into Sabah, the Star reported today.

“They’re going to deport me. I’m dealing with the Sabah Chief Minister’s department,” she said.

The Star reported PKR deputy secretary-general Darell Leiking, who was waiting for the Lembah Pantai MP at the airport, Tweeted saying he was waiting for the blacklist to see if Nurul was on it.

Nurul tweeted saying “Sabah immigration is arranging my deportation. I am not allowed to discuss with MP Darrell Leiking, who’s here waiting for me.”

The Star said Nurul Izzah tweeted again saying that there were other MPs who will not be allowed into Sabah.

“There are other MPs who will be denied entry into Sabah. When (I) pressed for their names, denied access. Deemed to be secret,” said Nurul Izzah.
