PETALING JAYA, June 3 — A special committee will be set up by Pakatan Rakyat (PR) to canvass support from Barisan Nasional (BN) MPs to establish the Independent Police Complaints and Misconduct Commission (IPCMC).

The committee will contain two MPs each from PR parties PKR, PAS and the DAP, as they seek to ensure a simple majority to pass a proposed parliamentary Bill.

"The IPCMC will be our main agenda in Parliament which will convene on June 24," DAP adviser Lim Kit Siang (picture) told reporters here.

"We need 23 more MPs for a simple majority ... We hope this special team in the next two to three weeks can get 23 BN MPs to support it."

According to Lim, the committee will first be targeting the four MIC MPs and seven MCA MPs, after MCA vice-president Gan Ping Sieu expressed his backing for the commission last week.
