KUALA LUMPUR, June 16 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today wished Happy Father's Day to all hardworking dads of Malaysia and conveyed his gratitude for all the sacrifices made by them.

Najib said their selfless sacrifice of time, money and effort nurtured those who would one day grow up to be the future of Malaysia.

"Please continue to be a source of strength and inspiration to your children.

"Continue to be that guiding beacon of hope your children look up to. This nation is depending on you," he wrote in his Facebook posting.

Father's Day is a celebration honouring fathers and celebrating fatherhood, paternal bonds and the influence of fathers in society.

In Malaysia, Father's Day is on the third Sunday of June, which falls today.
