KOTA KINABALU, June 21 (Bernama) -- The Sabah Umno Liaison Committee has resolved that the posts of Umno president and deputy president be uncontested at the party elections later this year.

Its chairman and Sabah chief minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman said the committee felt that the current president and prime minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and deputy president and deputy prime minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin made a formidable partnership which should be retained.

The two leaders also commanded strong support from among the Umno grassroots, he told reporters after chairing the first meeting of the committee following the May 5 general election, at the Umno building here, last night.

Musa, who is also chairman of the Sabah Barisan Nasional (BN), said the committee recorded its appreciation to all state Umno divisional, youth, wanita and puteri heads and members for their hard work in ensuring BN's victory in the state in the general election.

The committee also expressed its thanks to the voters for their support and pledged to continue to serve them well.
