PEKAN, June 22 (Bernama) -- Pahang Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Adnan Yaakob has urged UMNO members to focus on the party's agenda of unity and integrity, and not any other matters.

He said the issue of whether the post of UMNO president or deputy president would be contested was not important and should be set aside for now.

"What is more pressing for us is to do a study on why the people had rejected us in the last general election.

"Admittedly, I did earlier state that the two top party posts should be contested. But I was only trying to stress that we should not give the impression that we are not democratic.

"Of course we are fully behind Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak as our president and Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin as his deputy. Who else in UMNO are better qualified," he told reporters after launching the state-level Teachers Day 2013 celebration at Dewan Konvensyen Sultan Ahmad Shah in Pekan, Saturday.
