SUNGAI PETANI, June 26 (Bernama) -- Kedah MCA Youth lodged a police report Wednesday for the investigation on the rape and murder of a marketing executive seven years ago to be reviewed.

The report made through its chief, Ng Soon Foo at the Kuala Muda police station in Sungai Petani, pertained to the Alor Setar High Court decision to acquit car salesman Shahril Jaafar, 32, of a charge of murdering Chee Gaip Yap, 25, near Kelab Cinta Sayang here in 2006.

The High Court had ruled that the prosecution failed to establish a prima facie case against Shahril.

Ng said the movement was not questioning the court's decision, and only wanted the police to review the investigation on the possibility that some aspects of it might have been overlooked.

"We are confident that there are still some avenues for the police to investigate and bring the killer to justice and to receive the appropriate punishment," he said.
