

Anwar: Vernacular schools should not be abolished, focus on national unity instead

Malaysian Insider

June 20, 2013

By Rita Jong

Opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said the country should not abolish the vernacular school system.

He urged the federal government to focus on national unity instead, following the racial issues which arose following the last general election.

"The vernacular school system developed since the 1960s and has been accepted as the education policy," he told the media today. - June 20, 2013.

Hakcipta © 2013 The Malaysian Insider

Source:

<http://www.themalaysianinsider.com/malaysia/article/anwar-vernacular-schools-should-not-be-abolished-focus-on-national-unity-instead/>