JITRA, June 30 (Bernama) -- The Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah described Sekolah Menengah Sultan Abdul Halim (SMSAH) as Kedah's pinnacle of success for its various achievements.

He expressed pride in the achievements of the school, which was named after him and established in 1963, for producing many veterans and government leaders of calibre, making it a renowned institution.

"It started as a humble day school and was later upgraded to a full boarding school. It is truly Kedah's pinnacle of success.

"It has evolved into an elite school and in 2011, was crowned as a High Performance School," Tuanku Abdul Halim said in his speech at SMSAH' Golden Jubilee dinner, here, Sunday.

He said SMSAH's excellent performance in the Penilaian Menengah Rendah (PMR) and Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) examinations made it the top choice for students and parents alike.

"With its top ranking in the state, I believe this school can maintain its brilliant performance for many more years to come," he emphasised.

Tuanku Abdul Halim also congratulated and thanked the school's teachers, students and alumni who have worked hard to maintain its performance and prestigious name for the past 50 years.

"Therefore, I urge everyone in SMSAH to keep up this good work and achieve further success," he said.

The king launched the Yayasan Pelajar SMSAH to strengthen the finances of the school's alumni association to benefit the students.
