PUTRAJAYA, July 5 (Bernama) -- Malaysia hopes the appointment of the new interim president of Egypt yesterday will pave the way for the restoration and renewal of the nation's smooth democratic transition.

The Foreign Ministry in a statement today said Malaysia urged that all parties move towards achieving a peaceful solution and to refrain from violence.

"It is important that the current crisis be resolved peacefully and through a democratic process to elect a new legitimate leadership and for a swift return of the civilian-led government in accordance with the aspiration of all Egyptians," it said.

"Malaysia believes that a long-lasting political solution will help Egypt achieve peace, progress and stability," it added.
