KUCHING, July 6 (Bernama) - Parti Pesaka Bumiputera Bersatu (PBB) leaders have been reminded to continue to work hard despite the big success at the state election in 2011 and the 13th general election (GE13) in May.

Works Minister Datuk Fadillah Yusof who is also PBB youth leader said the reminder was necessary so that members did not feel too comfortable with the victory achieved.

"We have to mobilise those in branches and at grassroots level to reach out to voters, especially among PBB members as there are members who have yet to register as voters.

"Let us not forget and become preoccupied with today's victory because they cannot guarantee we will continue to succeed in future. Complacency is the enemy of success," he told reporters after opening 'Karnival Masjid Ku 'Menyemai Mahabbah di Ambang Ramadhan' at Masjid Darul Hana Patinggan, here Saturday.

Fadillah who is also Sarawak BN youth chief said it is ready to help campaign for the Kuala Besut state by-election in Terengganu on July 24.
