A statement by BN Kinabatangan MP Datuk Bung Mokhtar Radin that the DAP was behind the controversial Facebook posting by sex bloggers Alvin Tan and Vivian Lee left the party's MPs fuming and Parliament in chaos.

"They should be immediately arrested and charged, don't allow them to walk free.

"I realise this trend happening after the 13th general election, perhaps this is all being sponsored by DAP," he charged, which saw the DAP MPs on their feet protesting Bung Mokhtar's remarks.

"This is slander, take it back, take the statement back," shouted the party's Taiping MP Nga Kor Ming

Bung Mokhtar quickly said he was merely suggesting that they could be behind it and was not making an outright accusation.

DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng had yesterday called for the quick punishment of the couple over their Facebook posting,
