Also present was the deputy prime minister's wife, Puan Sri Norainee Abd Rahman.

Muhyiddin also sought the cooperation of the residents to cast their votes on July 24, to give support to the BN candidate for development planned by the government to proceed smoothly.

"Our candidate has not only come here today, but I promise he will continue coming after being announced winner to look into the needs of the people," he said.

Village head Zainudin Mohamad, in welcoming Muhyiddin's visit, pledged to continue the village tradition of supporting BN by giving it a bigger majority on Wednesday.
