KUALA BESUT, July 21 (Bernama) -- Residents here can now benefit from the recycling bank which began its operations at the Dataran Pasar Tani, today.

Deputy Minister of Urban Wellbeing, Housing and Local Government Datuk Halimah Mohd Sadique said the recycling bank would be open every Sunday and could help the people to generate additional income.

"The residents can bring along items for recycling such as old newspapers, empty bottles or cans to be sold at the market price at the recycling bank.

"Although the value is small, but if it is done continuously it can still give additional cash and there are some people who became millionaires by operating the used items business," she told reporters after opening the Public Awareness With the Community Programme at the Dataran Pasar Tani, here Sunday.

The programme is being organised by the Terengganu Solid Waste and Public Cleansing Management Corporation and was also attended by the corporation's director, Fatimah Ahmad.
