PUTRAJAYA, July 24 (Bernama) -- Perkasa has raised the Malay worries on meritocracy, education, economics and religion to Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

Its president, Datuk Ibrahim Ali said the matter was brought up by 10 Perkasa committee members in a frank and unemotional manner to the prime minister during the a one-hour meeting Wednesday.

He said the Malay rights group was happy that it was able to convey the Malay fear on various issues confronting them of late.

"We voiced out our views as an organisation that fights for the Malay's future," he told reporters after the meeting here.
