ALOR SETAR, July 26 (Bernama) -- The Property Management Division (BPH) of Prime Minister's Department is studying the need to install closed-circuit television cameras (CCTV) at all federal buildings as they been victims of intrusions and crime.

Its secretary Norazman Othman said now this was seen as an important aspect to protect government employees and assets.

"We will make no compromises when it comes to safety and security," he told reporters attending a breaking of the fast function here last night.

At the function, he also announced that from Aug 1, people in the northern region could make complaints about shortcomings at federal buildings via SMS or MMS by sending (the complaint) to 15888.
