KOTA KINABALU, July 27 (Bernama) -- Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman said the various policies, programmes and initiatives introduced by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has benefited the population from all strata of society.

He said it was evidence of the government's sincerity and earnestness in wanting to provide the best for the people.

"The 13th general election is over and the people had made their decision. In the context of Sabah, the majority has continued to express their support and confidence in the Barisan Nasional government under the prime minister's leadership," he said.

He said this here Saturday night, at a breaking of fast with Najib who is on a working visit to Sabah accompanied by his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor.

"We will double our efforts and work hard to live up to the mandate given to us and fulfill our pledges to the people who had stood by us," he added.

Musa describing Najib as a leader who was sensitive and committed to meeting the people's hopes and aspirations also expressed his gratitude to the prime minister for appointing six Sabah leaders as federal ministers and four others as deputy ministers.
