KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 17 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is happy at the large turnout to his Aidilfitri open house hosted by him and his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, in Taman Tasik Sultan Abu Bakar, Pekan Saturday.

Najib, through his Twitter, said: "The open house is my appreciation of the solid support from the people, specifically the people of Pekan".

The open house which started at 8am, was attended by about 80,000 guests.

Also present were the Sultanah of Pahang, Sultanah Hajah Kalsom, and Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Adnan Yaakob.

Meanwhile, in a brief interview with TV3 aired live in Buletin 1.30, Najib said he was not only happy but also satisfied (with the open house) because he shook hands with many guests.

"God willing, I will continue to organise my open house because it is a much-awaited annual event," he added.
