KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 17 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is proud with FELDA's efforts to continue to improve the living standard of the local community.

"At a hari raya function after the launch of the National Settlers' Day yesterday, I had the opportunity to meet a few Barisan Nasional (BN) leaders and FELDA settlers.

"I am proud because FELDA continues to improve the quality of life of the local community. Congratulations," he said in his Facebook posting Saturday.

Najib, who was in Kedah for a one-day visit on Friday, opened the national-level Settlers' Day celebration at FELDA Sungai Tiang, Pendang, Kedah.

In his speech, Najib said the success achieved by FELDA since its establishment 57 years ago was the best example of a transformation process that had materialised.
