KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 19 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Monday called on the public to provide input and suggestions on the 2014 Budget.

Najib, who is also Finance Minister, said he called for the input and suggestions from the public in line with his commitment to formulate a people-inspired budget for the country.

In his Facebook update, he said the public's input and suggestions had also been taken into account and adopted in several of the policies announced in the 2013 Budget.

The 2014 Budget is scheduled to be tabled on Oct 25.
