KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 1 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Sunday gave an assurance that the sacrifices of families of national heroes would not be wasted.

In his latest entry on Facebook, he said the parade of soldiers during the 56th Merdeka celebrations Saturday, reminded him of the struggles of past warriors in maintaining the peace and national sovereignty.

"Their pain, the sacrifices of their family members, will not be wasted. Come, let's be united under 1Malaysia," he said.

During the celebrations, 76 officers and personnel from VAT69 Commando who were involved in Operation Daulat in Lahad Datu, Sabah last March, also delivered a special performance.

More heart-rending, the widows of policemen and soldiers who were killed in the incident could not hold back their sorrow when witnessing the special performance.
