LABUAN, Aug 21 (Bernama) -- Labuan Umno acting chief Senator Datuk Yunus Kurus is expected hand over the reins to his secretary Rosman Isli at its coming polls.

Yunus said he and other leaders in the division including Rosman and vice head Datuk Bashir Alias had held discussion on this.

"The talks were to allow Rosman to be unopposed at the polls.

"I also explained the call by Umno's top leadership which wants experienced and fresh leaders in Umno including at the division level...what is important is unity among members," he told Bernama here today.

Rosman, who is also Member of Parliament for Labuan, prior to this had been reported as saying that he was interested to stand for the chief post with Bashir as his running mate.

The 15 branches in Labuan Umno are scheduled to complete their delegates meeting by Sept 15.
