IPOH, Sept 4 (Bernama) -- Perak Umno chairman Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir said Perak Umno supports the call for no contest for the party's top two posts.

"This stance by Perak Umno must not be misconstrued as restriction on members as the transformation is meant to give them the chance to contest in the elections.

"Perak Umno is not denying members the right to contest at all levels but we feel that the president's and deputy president's posts should not be contested," he told reporters after chairing the State Executive Council meeting here on Wednesday.

Penang Umno has supported the call to retain Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak as Umno president and Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin as deputy president based on the overwhelming public support for the party.
