KOTA KINABALU, Sept 4 (Bernama) -- Tenom Umno Wanita division chief Datuk Rahmahjan Sulaiman Khan has offered to contest the Umno Wanita executive committee member post in party polls in October.

Rahmahjan said she came to the decision after considering various factors, including support from the grassroots level and recent political development.

"Wanita Umno members at the grassroots level want to see a combination of stalwarts and newcomers in the line-up," she told a news conference to announce her candidature here today.

Rahmahjan also announced that she would be defending the Tenom Wanita Umno division chief post.

On the contest for the Umno Wanita vice-chief post, Rahmahjan said she was confident that Sabah's delegates would solidly back Deputy Women, Family and Community Development Minister and Member of Parliament for Beaufort Datuk Azizah Mohd Dun who had announced her bid for the post.

Rahmahjan also gave her full support for incumbent Umno Wanita chief Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil in defending her post.
