ALOR SETAR, Sept 13 (Bernama) -- Former Derga assemblyman Dr Cheah Soon Hai was retained as Kedah Gerakan chairman for the second term after he won the post uncontested at the party's nomination day here Friday.

Gerakan national party election supervisory committee chairman Tan Sri Dr Chin Fook Weng said Tan Keng Liang was also retained as Kedah Gerakan Youth chief after he also won the post uncontested.

He said a newcomer, Tan Cheng Hong, would replace Eng Gaik Hong as Kedah Gerakan Women's chief after the incumbent decided not to contest.

"Nomination of candidates for the three positions were completed at noon after all the 15 divisions unanimously elected them.

"Kedah is the fifth state to finish the nomination process for party polls after Negeri Sembilan, Malacca, Terengganu and Penang", he told the media, here, today.
