JOHOR BAHRU, Sept 13 (Bernama) -- Pulai Umno division chief Datuk Nur Jazlan Mohamed has welcomed former Kempas assemblyman Osman Sopian's challenge for the top divisional post for the second time.

"I also hope other young leaders dare to come forward to offer themselves to contest the Umno division chief post.

"This is important as it reflects democracy is alive and well in Pulai Umno and the division has a pool of second-line leaders who are willing to shoulder the responsibility to serve the party and the community," he told Bernama here today.

He said the contest would also enable members to evaluate leaders who would serve them.

"If only old faces are joining the fray, it gives a bad impression that Pulai Umno is facing a drought of young leaders," he said when commenting on a salvo fired by Osman yesterday.

Osman, who lost in his bid for the division chief post in 2008, said he was ready for another face off with Nur Jazlan.

Nur Jazlan also thwarted a challenge posed by division vice-chief then, Yaakub Atan in 2004.
