SANDAKAN, Sept 13 (Bernama) -- Sukau assemblyman Datuk Saddi Abdul Rahman today announced his intention to contest the post of Kinabatangan Umno Division chief now held by Kinabatangan MP Datuk Bung Moktar Radin.

He made the announcement in his speech at the meeting of the Kampung Perpaduan Batu Putih 1 Umno Branch here.

Saddi, who is head of the branch, said he arrived at the decision after taking into consideration the feedback from the heads of branches in the Kinabatangan Umno Division.

He had contested the post of Kinabatangan Umno Division deputy chief in the 2008 elections but lost to Jeffri Arifin.

Saddi said his decision was not aimed at causing disunity in the division but was in line with the practice of democracy in Umno.

He said he wanted to bring about a political transformation in the division and benefit the members in terms of implementation of development.
