KINABATANGAN, Sept 14 (Bernama) -- Datuk Bung Moktar Radin is all set to defend his Kinabatangan Umno division chief post after Sukau assemblyman Datuk Saddi Abdul Rahman announced his decision to challenge him.

The Kinabatangan member of parliament has been holding the posit for the past 20 years, since 1996, and has been a member of Umno's Supreme Council since 2009.

"Umno needs to be strong especially to face the 14th General Election, like the results of the previous election, it depends on rural voters," he told reporters here Saturday.

Bung Moktar said he viewed Saddi's challenge positively and saw the contest as a 'family affair' because "whoever wins or loses both contestants belong to Umno."
