MELAKA, Sept 14 (Bernama) -- Puteri Umno needs a high calibre skipper to navigate the movement through trouble waters and garner the support of the younger generation, said probable Puteri chief contender Mas Emieyati Shamsudin.

Mas Emieyati, who is also Melaka Puteri chief, Puteri executive committee member and MP for Masjid Tanah, said she wanted to see a healthy contest where anyone could stand, but eventually losing candidates would accept the verdict.

"This is important to ensure that Umno will not be split after the contest and all Puteri members will continue work wholeheartedly to take the movement forward," she said when contacted today.

Mas Emieyati, 37, a lawyer by training, who confirmed her candidature on Aug 4 took her nomination form at the Putra World Trade Centre in Kuala Lumpur, today.

Petaling Jaya Selatan Puteri chief and Puteri executive committee member Jamilah Hanim Othman has also indicated her interest to contest the post vacated by Datuk Rosnah Abdul Rashid Shirlin who is also deputy works minister.
