KOTA KINABALU, Sept 16 (Bernama) -- Sabah Umno respects Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman's decision not to contest the post of Vice President or Supreme Council seat in the upcoming Umno elections, said State Umno Liaison deputy chief Datuk Seri Salleh Said Keruak.

"The Chief Minister explained to us why he does not want to contest and we accepted the explanation and respect his decision," he told Bernama here today.

He said Sabah Umno would continue to support Musa as the State Umno Liaison chief and Chief Minister to map out as well as implement the development agenda of Sabah.

Salleh was asked to comment on the statement by Musa yesterday over the matter.

Musa was quoted as saying that after much consideration and consultation among his peers in the party, he decided not to run for both posts.

Musa was also quoted as saying that he had informed Umno president, Datuk Seri Najib Abdul Razak on his decision.

Musa had also said that Sabah Umno maintained its position that the posts of Umno President and Deputy president should not be challenged.
