KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 18 (Bernama) -- About 48,000 Puteri Umno members will be selecting the leadership of the wing at the central and divisional levels throughout the country next month, said its chief Datuk Rosnah Abdul Rashid Shirlin.

Nomination of candidates for both levels will be held this Saturday while voting would be carried out on Oct 12.

Rosnah said 11,793 Puteri Umno delegates would be casting their votes to determine the party's top leadership including president, deputy president, as well as the supreme council line up on Oct 19.

Asked about the confusion among members on the system and method of voting this time, Rosnah said Puteri Umno had held information sessions at each of the 6,700 branches to clear the confusion.

"This is the first time...we cannot deny there would be queries, in fact, some branches are complaining and that is why we held the briefing process," she told Bernama.

To facilitate the media, Rosnah said Puteri Umno would be setting up a committee at the central level tasked with issuing information on the total number of candidates contesting apart from announcing the results of the party's election.
