

Umno Election: Nomination Form Submission Procedure
Bernama
19 Sept, 2013

KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 19 (Bernama) -- The following are procedures which need to be observed by individuals who wish to contest in the Umno election, when submitting their nomination forms to the Umno headquarters at the Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC), here this Saturday:

1. Prospective candidates/representatives must bring their identification card, membership number and nomination form to Counter 1, on Level 5 for verification before being given a number.

2. Prospective candidates/representatives must identify registration channel based on the post to be contested (Supreme Council, Wanita, Youth or Puteri) and register at the Registration counter (Counter 2).

3. Prospective candidates/representatives will be given a card to determine the channel for registration form submission and they need to wait in the area provided until their number is called.

4. When their number is called, the prospective candidates/representatives can enter the Labuan/Kuala Lumpur Room to submit their nomination forms according to the respective channel.

* For Permanent Chairman, Deputy Permanent Chairman, President, Deputy President, Vice Presidents and Permanent Chairman, Deputy Permanent Chairman as well as Chief and Deputy posts for party wing movements (Counter A)

* For Supreme Council and wing exco posts (Counter B)

5. Nomination forms will go through a 5-step inspection which includes personal information verification, forms will be recorded and given a candidate number.

6. The nomination forms will then be handed to an election committee personnel for screening and information will be cross-checked in the party's database. Complete forms will be verified before prospective candidate/representative is given a copy of the nomination forms and candidate number as proof of registration.

Umno Executive Secretary Datuk Abdul Rauf Yusof said a similar procedure will be used for nomination form submission at the state level, which will be carried out at the respective State Umno Liaison Offices this Saturday.

This election, a total of 146,500 delegates will vote simultaneously for their leaders at the division-level and Supreme Council in 191 Umno divisions nationwide this Oct 19.

Before that, a delegates meeting and election for Wanita, Youth and Puteri Umno divisions and central Exco posts for the three party wings will be held simultaneously on Oct 12.

The 2013 Umno General Assembly will be held this coming Dec 2 to 7.
