KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 1 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has prayed for the success of 462,940 students sitting for their Penilaian Menengah Rendah (PMR) examination nationwide from Wednesday.

"I pray for the success of students who will begin their PMR exam tomorrow. Hopefully, they will see the fruit of their labour," he said on his Facebook account on Tuesday.

The PMR examination will be held for six days starting Oct 2 until Oct 9 at 3,530 examination centres around the country.

On his working visit to the United States from Sept 22 to 29, Najib said he had stated Malaysia's stand on international political issues at the United Nations General Assembly in New York.

"Besides that, Malaysia has also identified several investment sectors with the US in efforts to develop the national economy," said Najib, who added that he arrived home this evening after his week-long visit to the US.
