KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 21 (Bernama) - Umno president Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and deputy president Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin on Saturday proved they are the ideal combination to lead party when they proposed each other to defend their posts.

The political secretary to the prime minister, Datuk Khairun Aseh told reporters this after submitting the nomination form for the Umno president's post at Putra World Trade Centre (PWTC) here today.

"This shows that they are inseparable, just like the Malay saying 'bagai aur dengan tebing.' This is an ideal partnership."

Khairun arrived to submit the nomination form with the political secretary to the deputy prime minister, Datuk Mohd Nardin Awang at 8am.

Khairun said up to 8am, no other candidates came to submit nomination forms for the posts of Umno president and deputy president.

On behalf of the prime minister, he thanked Umno headquarters for ensuring smooth implementation of the submission of nomination forms from 8am to 5pm.

Mohd Nardin also conveyed thanks to Umno headquarters for the good work on behalf of Muhyiddin.
