KUALA TERENGGANU, Oct 11 (Bernama) -- The Terengganu Umno Election Committee today confirmed that 22 of the 38 candidates who have been announced to be ineligible to contest due to various factors, have been allowed to contest in the party polls.

Its chairman, Datuk Muda Mamat, said they comprised 17 candidates whose membership in Umno was less than 36 months and five others whose problems with the Insolvency Department had been cleared after checks were made.

The remaining 16 are still not eligible to contest as they still had problems with the Insolvency Department, he told reporters here today.
