PUTRAJAYA, Oct 12 (Bernama) -- Although still in confinement, Maziah Mohd Dali insisted on discharging her responsibility as an Umno member by going to the party polls at the Putrajaya Corporation Saturday.

Maziah, 31, who gave birth to her fifth child, a daughter, eight days ago, was accompanied by her sister, Munirah Mohd Dali, 20.

Complete in her Puteri Umno attire, Maziah, a staff at the Public Service Department who is and among the 138 Putrajaya Puteri Umno delegates, said she felt it would be a waste if she did not carry out her responsibility.

"I am here to choose a candidate whom I feel is good for the party. This is also the first time I'm voting after I registered as a Puteri Umno member" she said when met by reporters before entering the hall to cast her vote.

Maziah said her husband was also active in politics and they regarded it as a responsibility to ensure the continuity of Umno for the future of the Malays.
