BAGAN DATOH, Oct 12 (Bernama) -- Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi said he was happy that the elections for the party's three wings proceeded smoothly today and hoped that party members would accept the results wholeheartedly.

He advised the defeated candidates to recognise the winners and take the results in their stride and for the winning candidates not to 'pressure' their opponents.

"Although this is the first time for the new election system, I'm very satisfied with the entire process," he said after presenting cattle for the Aidiladha sacrifice, here, Saturday.

He also urged the parties involved not to cause any trouble once the results were announced.

"We have the Election Committee to deal with any problem, so have faith in them," he said.

The elections involved more than 230,000 delegates comprising 110,765 from Wanita Umno; 70,000, Umno Youth and 50,000, Puteri Umno.
