KOTA KINABALU, Oct 14 (Bernama) -- The election of three former Puteri Umno leaders as Wanita Exco members is proof of the strong bond between the two party wings.

Former Puteri Umno chief Datuk Rosnah Abd Rashid Shirlin said the transition from Puteri to Wanita is important so that former Puteri leaders can continue to serve the party.

"We are no longer fighting for the sake of survival or gender. Wanita will have to utilise their assets and credibility," she said in a statement here today.

The Deputy Minister of Works was one of the three former Puteri leaders elected as Wanita Exco members.

She said the trust given will spur her to fight for the party struggles and hopes for similar support in the contest for a seat in the Umno Supreme Council.
