GUA MUSANG, Oct 14 (Bernama) -- Umno vice-president aspirant Tan Sri Mohd Isa Samad pledged to share the burden of President Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and his deputy Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, if elected on Saturday.

"As a person with vast experience in the party, I will be loyal to the Prime Minister and his deputy, to defend the Malays," he said when speaking at a Felda Neighbourhood event at the South Kelantan Development Authority (Kesedar) Land Development Programme in Paloh 1, here, Monday.

Also present was Paloh state assemblyman Datuk Nozula Mat Diah and Gua Musang Felda Regional general manager Che Noh Che Pa.

Mohd Isa who is also Felda chairman said he was prepared to cooperate and empower the struggle of Umno with other vice-presidents, if elected by the party delegates.

In this regard, he pledged to bring major changes to the Felda settlers nationwide, apart from Kesedar.
