TAWAU, Oct 7 (Bernama) -- Kalabakan Wanita Umno head Datuk Hamisa Samat has been asked to identify the individual who has allegedly intimidated delegates in the run-up to the meetings of the party wings on Saturday.

Kalabakan Umno vice-head Ismail Ait said Hamisa should reveal the identify of the individual because intimidation was not an Umno culture.

"We want Datuk Hamisa to expose the individual immediately. We do not want delegates to be afraid to elect candidates of their choice. Umno gives freedom to its delegates to elect their leaders. If the allegation is true, action must be taken ...," he said.

Ismail was commenting on a statement by Hamisa published in the local newspapers today that delegates had been intimidated in the run-up to the delegates' meetings and election of the party wings on Saturday.
