KOTA KINABALU, Oct 9 (Bernama) -- Candidates from Sabah who win in the upcoming Umno elections are urged to give the best service to the party.

Sabah Umno Liaison Committee chairman, Datuk Seri Musa Aman Wednesday said the candidates were capable of contributing to the party, but he hoped they would be able to shoulder well the responsibilities entrusted to them upon their win.

"I hope the election process will go on smoothly. Whoever we choose, we must ensure that the party moves forward in the right direction."

Musa said this at the introduction session for candidates vying for the Umno supreme council and Wanita, Youth and Puteri executive committee posts.

Musa, who is also Sabah Chief Minister, said his decision not to contest for any post in the supreme council was to focus on the state's development.
