KUALA TERENGGANU, Oct 9 (Bernama) -- The Terengganu Barisan Nasional (BN) will meet soon to determine the number of campaigners needed to assist the BN election machinery for the Sungai Limau by-election.

State BN chairman Datuk Seri Ahmad Said said the state BN executive secretary would be going to Sungai Limau to look for accommodations for the campaigners.

Speaking to reporters after attending the state executive council meeting here Wednesday, Ahmad said Terengganu campaigners would work hand in hand with the Pendang BN in PAS strongholds like Gelang Tiga and Chorus.

The by-election scheduled for Nov 4 is necessitated following the death of former Kedah menteri besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak after long illness on Sept 26.
