PETALING JAYA: MCA today accused a DAP official of rudeness in a Twitter message that linked the disappearance of MH370 with news about Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak buying a whole chicken.

MCA publicity chief Ivone Low said in a press statement that Kulai MP Teo Nie Ching should have shown sensitivity toward the feelings of relatives of the passengers on the MAS flight.

Teo, who is DAP's deputy publicity chief, said in a tweet in Mandarin: "The whole world is searching for the missing airliner, but Najib searches for chickens."

Low said: "It's hard to believe that an elected representative can be frivolous towards the loss of an aircraft.

"Her cynical tweet has shown that she has little consideration for the feelings of the victim's families, and as a MP, her attitude is completely unacceptable."

In a separate statement, Low's deputy, Michael Yap, said: "As a federal lawmaker, her choice of words could have been considerate but has failed to make any concrete contribution at this critical juncture. Such behaviour is unkind.

"I hope Nie Ching is able to reflect on her insensitive words and make the necessary corrections."

Flight MH370 disappeared early Saturday with 239 people on board.
