KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 12 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today urged Muslims to turn up in full force for the "solat hajat" (special prayers) which will be held at the Federal Territory Mosque here tomorrow from 6pm to seek greater peace and prosperity for the nation.

"Hopefully, this effort will get Allah's blessings," he said in in his latest Facebook entry.

Najib will also be joining the event which is organised by 1Malaysia For Youth.

The programme will start with a religious talk followed by Maghrib prayers, Yasin recital, Isyak prayers, the solat hajat and a feast.
