PAS has urged Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi to conduct himself in a manner befitting that of a home minister and ensure everyone in the country was protected by the police.

Its Information chief Datuk Mahfuz Omar (pic) said Zahid should remember he is a minister and not a patron of right-wing Malay rights groups.

"He should start talking like a home minister, and not as a patron of (Malay rights pressure group) Perkasa or other extreme and racist NGOs like that," he told reporters at a press conference today.

He said this when commenting on Zahid's dismissal of a RM1,200 reward offered by a group of Muslim NGO's to slap DAP Seputeh MP Teresa Kok .

He had said it is not a crime. - February 10, 2014.
