PAS central committee member Mazlan Aliman was reportedly stopped at the Sibu airport and barred from entering Sarawak today.

According to a posting on his Facebook, the orders came from the Chief Minister's Office.

"I have been detained by the Immigration authorities upon arrival at Sibu airport at 11.25am today.

"An immigration officer said I was not wanted by the Sarawak government," wrote Mazlan, who is also PAS land bureau chief.

He believed that the ban on his entry was related to the Sarawak rally over land rights, called Himpunan Tanah Sarawak, which will be launched by PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang in Beting Maro tomorrow.

This is the second time Sarawak has barred Mazlan from entering the state. On July 6, 2011, he was denied entry on arrival at the Miri Airport.
