KUALA LUMPUR, March 7 (Bernama) -- The Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation (Matrade) will kick-start its series of Exporters Forum 2014 on March 11 this year.

The forum, themed "Energising Exports" is aimed at enhancing exporters' skills and knowledge, the national investment promotion agency said in a statement Friday.

The forum will be held in nine main cities, namely Johor Bahru, Penang, Kota Bharu, Kuantan, Ipoh, Sungai Petani, Seremban, Tawau and Bintulu throughout the year.

Workshops and trade consultation sessions will be arranged during the forum. Participants will benefit from the knowledge-sharing experience by Malaysian companies which have successfully ventured abroad, it added.
