KUALA LUMPUR, March 8 (Bernama) -- Malaysia Airports Holdings Bhd (MAHB) has informed that all flight operations at Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) are proceeding as normal.

In a statement here Saturday, MAHB said a support centre has been set up at Anjung Tinjau Level 5, Main Terminal Building to facilitate the handling of the family members of Flight MH370 from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing which went missing today.

"Our hearts go out to the families and friends of passengers onboard Flight MH370 in this period of uncertainty.

"We are doing everything we can to assist Malaysia Airlines and the families and friends that have come to the airport," it said.
