KUALA LUMPUR, March 12 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has called for another briefing today with the search and rescue (SAR) team mounted to locate the missing Malaysia Airlines (MAS) aircraft.

"I have called for another briefing today with the SAR team. We will work relentlessly, on multinational basis to find MH370," said the Prime Minister on his Twitter account today.

Yesterday, Najib attended a briefing, for about 90 minutes, given by Department of Civil Aviation (DCA) director-general Datuk Azharuddin Abdul Rahman at the Aeronautical Rescue Coordination Centre at the DCA Air Traffic Control Centre in Subang, Selangor

In his twitter, Najib also shared a picture during the briefing which include him with Acting Transport Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein, Azharuddin and MAS Group chief executive officer Ahmad Jauhari Yahya.

MAS flight MH370, carrying 227 passengers and 12 crew, went missing enroute from Kuala Lumpur to Beijing about an hour after taking off from KL International Airport (KLIA) at 12.41 am on Saturday.

It should have landed in Beijing at 6.30 am on the same day.
